40 Hours' Devotion at our Church - 31 July – 3 August 2020

The 40 Hours Devotion refers to 40 hours set aside for the adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The forty hours devotion is indeed important because it is a graced time for our parish family. It is a time for us to come before the Blessed Sacrament and thank God for his graces, to make reparation to Him for our past sins, to pray for the sick and those who struggle at this time. We pray also for our parish community, families, and our country. Please put your name to one of the time slots for prayer and adoration or to look after the church as a Stuart. Thank you. Fr Marcin

10-11 September – Ministry Sign up weekend. Volunteers needed at our church. Many roles available! Help is needed with cash counting, social comity, church cleaning, serving as Extraordinary Eucharistic ministers, readers, paskeepers, sacristans, doing altar linens or church maintenance. Many of the roles are on a rota basis. Can you help? If interested, please do get in touch on that weekend after the Mass with our delegates waiting for you to help you to join the ministry and answer all your questions!
